LAWMAKERS TAKE THREE OUT OF FOUR

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., June 10.—Unable to find McKenzie, while Bertram was run from the firing line, Richmond won the final game of the series by the score of 4 to 2, and made it three out of four taken from the locals.

The game was indifferently played at times, both teams making errors and bonehead plays. A number of the hits on both sides could have been saved by fast fielding, such as both aggregations are capable of putting up.

Pender took Bertram out in the fifth and put big boy Cummings in, but what was the use?

The Lawmakers must put on their batting clothes and hand a few lemons to that Danville bunch. Remember the last series.

Paul Siebrie came in town last night. Says he is feeling fine and ready to go in any minute. He will probably play to-day.

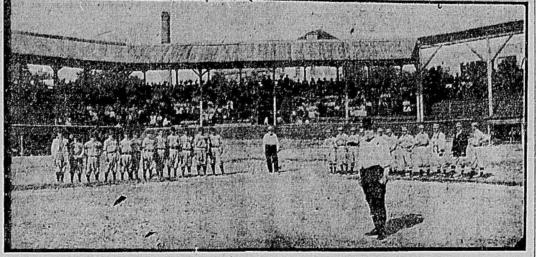

Archer, the ex-lawmaker, writes to a friend here that he is playing ball in Youkers, N. Y., and is making out fine.
